

PROCTOR DECLARES THERE IS FRAME-UP

Author of Option Repeal and Saloon
Regulation Bill Climbs All Over
Lieutenant Governor Hall.

WILL FIGHT SALOON BILL TO DEATH

Indianapolis, Ind., March 1.—The house this afternoon passed the new Proctor local option bill after it had been given a number of amendments, 55 to 33. The bill now goes to the senate for concurrence and Senator Proctor, author of the bill, it is said, will lead the fight against the adoption of the house amendments.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 1.—Charging a "frame-up" against him by Acting Lieutenant Governor Hall and of connivance in a successful effort to leave him off the conference committee named for his regulation measure, Senator Proctor in a sensational speech in the upper house of the Indiana legislature this morning declared that he would lead the bill to slaughter in the senate.

The attack of the senator from Elkhart followed an hour of wrangling over the saloon regulation bill, the senate refusing to concur in the house amendments. Senator Stotzburger was in the chair.

Hall Leaves the Chamber.

Senator Proctor hurled his charge of unfair play. Lieutenant Governor Hall left the senate chamber. The conferees named by President Proctor are Senators Stotzburger, Hauck and Durrie.

Senator Proctor charges that Lieutenant Governor Hall purposely left the chair in the hands of Senator Stotzburger that he might not be called upon to break faith with him. The senator from Elkhart maintained that the lieutenant governor conspired with him that he would be named as one of the conferees.

Hall Denies Proctor Charge.

Lieutenant Governor Hall denied to Senator Trautmann, who seconded the Proctor appeal from a decision of the chair, that he had made any such promise to Senator Proctor. When Senator Stotzburger in the chair, acting on the Fleming motion, appointed the conferees, Senator Proctor declared that the senate had the appointive power and asked that the members be allowed to name the conferees. This was deterred by the chair and by Senator Proctor.

Sensor Wood, leader of the minority, was called to the chair while Senator Stotzburger took the floor in defense of his position.

On the vote on the appeal Senator Stotzburger was sustained, 21 to 12.

Really, it Looks a Frame-Up.

While Senator Stotzburger was on the floor Senator Proctor demanded to know why the conference committee was appointed by the president pro tem and not by the lieutenant governor. Senator Stotzburger declared that the only reason was that he (Stotzburger) happened to be in the chair at the time.

"I don't care to go further," said Senator Proctor, "and say what I really think was the reason."

When asked what he meant by this statement Senator Proctor declared that the appointment was nothing less than the result of a "frame-up" against him.

Sensor Stotzburger says that Senators Hauck and Durrie were named on the conference committee for the reason that they had taken no part in the framing of the bill and little part in the discussion of the same and therefore were not radical and were unbiased.

House Kills Bills.

The house this morning killed the bill providing for the appointment of a state fire marshal. The Durrie senate bill making failure to vote in elections a misdemeanor, and the Williams measure providing for a 10 per cent garnishee of wages.

The garnishee bill provoked a lively debate, in which its constitutionality was questioned by Representative McClell.

"Since we have several constitutions in the air," retorted Representative Williams, "I think this bill might be all right."

The measure was killed on the motion of Representative Masselink to indefinitely postpone further consideration.

The house this morning passed the McPherson bill providing for licensing distilleries, breweries and depot agencies; the Wise measure, repealing the legislative reapportionment act of 1905; the Mass bill, requiring benefited citizens in cities of 100,000 or more population to pay for street intersections, and the Cook bill, exempting Greek letter societies from taxation.

Registration Bill Advanced.

The Clark-Harris senate registration bill was advanced to third reading in the house amended by Representative Spencer so as to provide for three registration periods—in May, September and October.

The Royce senate measure providing for examination of building and loan associations and for a fund to protect stockholders was the storm center of a multitude of words in the house; the result being a strict party line-up. The democrats charged obstruction methods in order to delay consideration of the constitutional bill and other measures dear to the heart of the administration. The bill finally was rushed to third reading on Speaker Venable's roller.

The senate today passed four bills and concurred in the amendments made by the house to a number of senate bills, in addition to the appointing of a conference committee on the Proctor regulation bill.

To Benefit Lake Shore Road.

An effort was made to kill the Proctor bill to give the railroads of the state eminent domain to condemn property for the purpose of four track and other systems but after a long debate and controversy the motion to indefinitely postpone was tabled and the amendments were concurred in. The bill will allow the Lake Shore road to

ARMISTICE MAY END

Coiba, Honduras, March 1.—Unless the peace conference at Puerto Cortez agree today upon a candidate for provisional president, Manuel Bonilla is expected to declare the armistice off and renew hostilities. The revolutionary leader demands the selection of one of the three candidates proposed by his peace commissioner as the first condition of an agreement.

General Maximo B. Rosales, the peace envoy of President Daria returned to Puerto Cortez last night on the United States gunboat Wheeling after a conference here yesterday with General Bonilla. They were closeted together for several hours but failed to reach an agreement on the question of the selection of the temporary president.

General Bonilla strongly intimated to the representative of the Associated Press at the conclusion of the conference with General Rosales, that if an agreement was not immediately reached by the peace envoys he would serve notice forthwith of the termination of the armistice. He says he wants peace, but will fight rather than accept as president any man who was connected with the old Zelaya regime in Honduras. The conference between the peace envoys will be resumed aboard the Tacoma at Puerto Cortez today.

MISHAP BEFALLS FUNERAL PARTY

Several Persons Injured as Hack Overturns Near Cemetery.

NONE BADLY HURT

Several persons were painfully injured in a runaway accident near the Catholic cemetery today just after the funeral party had turned away from the grave where the remains of Joseph E. Becker had been interred.

The team of horses drawing one of the hacks driven by William Carpenter of the Myers barn, in some manner became unmanageable and ran down along the long line of carriages colliding with a vehicle from the Welch establishment. It did little damage here, but as the team emerged from the cemetery the carriage struck a ditch and overturned.

In the hack were five persons—Lawrence Becker, of Lasalle street, and members of his family. All of them were somewhat bruised and cut about the hands and face by the shattered glass. Mr. Becker suffered most severely and the attention of a surgeon was necessary, though it is said that none of the injured are likely to prove serious. The injured were placed in other carriages and taken to their homes.

Driver Carpenter pluckily drove his team into the barn, despite the fact that he was suffering from a dislocated shoulder. Then he went to the Lutheran hospital to have his injury attended to. The carriage was badly wrecked.

INNOCENT BILL CARRIES LOAD

Measure in Legislature for Drastic Control of Advertising.

BARGAIN SALES MUST MAKE GOOD

General News and Gossip of the Legislature of the Hoosier State.

Indianapolis, March 1.—An innocent looking measure was introduced yesterday evening by Senator Trautmann at the request of a friend, but it appears that the bill will be far-reaching in its effect. Senator Trautmann states that the bill is aimed at fraudulent advertisements of merchandise and would make it a misdemeanor for a tradesman to stamp goods with a standard mark when they were inferior articles.

False statements about awards of prizes and the motive or purpose of a sale intended to have the appearance of an advantageous offer are expressly forbidden under penalty of a fine of from $10 to $500. The character or value of a corporation whose stock is offered for sale is included and the quality and curative power of drugs and medicines as well.

What Bill Hits At.

The measure is regarded as a very strong one in its bearing upon the subject matter of advertisements, the cut price sales, patent medicine advertisements and get-rich-quick schemes being the particular objects, according to Senator Trautmann.

There are said to be three congressional reapportionment bills in committee in the state legislature awaiting the action of congress on the Crumpacker bill which would allow Indiana to have thirteen congressmen, the same as per present quota. One of the bills would re-enact the present plan, another would make only a few changes and the third would alter the district lines in a number of ways. It is thought that the bill with few changes will be favored if action is taken.

School Bill Not Dead.

It is stated on good authority that the Gavitt bill to create a school for incorrigibles in every school corporation of the state which was killed in the senate yesterday afternoon is not going to stay dead. Senator Gavitt declares that he has secured the promise of several members of the senate who voted against the measure to move to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated. If a majority vote to take the bill up again after the motion has been laid upon the table for a day the bill will take the regular course of a bill on third reading and will be subject to amendment and passage.

The bill was drawn by Judge Brown, of Salt Lake City, who has a national reputation in the matter of caring for incorrigible children and it is proposed that in every school unit there be a school room set aside for incorrigibles or a separate school where the unruly can be segregated from the other children. The measure contains a provision that in case the incorrigible has not completed the eight grades under the age of fourteen, he may be held in school until the age of 16 and on this section much of the opposition to the bill found lodgment.

BANKER ROBIN SAYS GUILTY

Makes Plea to Charge of Larceny in Trial in New York.

GOT RICH QUICK; WRECKED BANKS

Seven Indictments Remain —Remanded to Tombs to Await Sentence.

New York, March 1.—Joseph G. Robin pleaded guilty in the supreme court today to a charge of larceny of $27,000 from the Washington Savings bank, of which he was president.

Seven indictments remain against Robin. He was remanded to the tombs until March 27, when he will be sentenced.

The collapse of Robin's defense of insanity put forward by his sister, Dr. Louise Rabinovitch, and his counsel, William Travers Jerome, had been foreshadowed last night when it was reported that Robin said he was "tired of all this," but it caused a stir in the court room none the less.

Fled to Private Sanitarium.

On the night before the Northern Bank of New York, in which Robin also was interested, went into the hands of the state superintendent of banks, Robin was committed to a private sanitarium on affidavits sworn out by his sister and two physicians. The sanitarium rejected him and he returned to the jurisdiction of the court and submitted to arrest.

On the day he was arrested Robin attempted suicide on the way to court by swallowing a dozen of hyoscine, but the prompt use of a stomach pump saved him.

On motion of Jerome, alienists were appointed by the state and defense to examine his sanity and reported unanimously that he was incompetent to undertake a defense. A jury sitting under Judge Swann rejected the findings of the alienists and Judge Swann complimented the jury on its "horse sense."

Jerome Quit Defense.

The case came to trial on Monday and Jerome's preliminary motions to dismiss on the ground that the defendant was insane were overruled by Justice Seabury.

Jerome decided to withdraw from the defense and Robin, through other counsel, pleaded guilty.

Through Robin's operations the Washington Savings bank, the Northern Bank of New York, the Carnegie Trust company and a string of minor concerns which he promoted went into insolvency. No full statement of his larceny has yet been made public by the state examiners.

IS WITHOUT TAIN; LORIMER IS VICTOR

By a Close Vote United States Senate
Decrees No Cloud is on His Title and His Toga Unpolluted.

A VEXED ISSUE FINALLY IS SETTLED

Washington, March 1.—The senate today, by a vote of forty-six to forty, sustained William Lorimer's title to a seat for the state of Illinois, defeating the resolution of Senator Beveridge, declaring him not legally elected a member of the senate.

The Vote.

The vote was as follows:
Nays—(Pro-Lorimer) Republicans—Bradley, Brandegee, Briggs, Bulkeley, Burnham, Burrows, Carter, Clarke, of Wyoming, Crane, Cullom, Curtis, Depew, Dick, Dillingham, Dupont, Flint, Frye, Gallinger, Gamble, Guggenheim, Hale, Heyburn, Keam, McCumber, Nixon, Oliver, Penrose, Perkins, Piles, Richardson, Scott, Smoot, Stephenson, Warren and Wetmore. Democrats—Bailey, Bankhead, Fletcher, Foster, Johnston, Paynter, Simmons, Smith of Maryland, Thornton, Tillman and Watson. Total, nays, 45.

Ayes—(Anti-Lorimer) Republicans—Beveridge, Borah, Bourne, Brewster, Brown, Burnett, Burton, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dixon, Groner, Jones, La Follette, Lodge, Nelson, Page, Root, Smith of Michigan, Smith, of Arkansas, Chamberlain, Clarke, of Arkansas, Culler, Davis, Gore, Martin, Loney, Newlands, Overman, Owen, Percy, Rayner, Shively, Smith of South Carolina, Stone, Swanson and Taylor. Total ayes, 40.

Absent—Aldrich, Frazier and Terrell.

Those Who Did Not Vote.

Senator Lorimer did not vote because of his interest in the case, and Senator Tallaferro was in his seat but did not respond to his name. The vote of Senator Gullom, Mr. Lorimer's colleague from Illinois, was awaited with great interest. Both sides had claimed him. He voted for Lorimer.

While no pairs were announced, Senator Aldrich was paired on other questions with Senator Terrell, both being absent on account of illness. Senator Tallaferro's absence may signify a pair with Senator Frazier, who was absent on account of the death of his mother. Mr. Tallaferro had been understood to be pro-Lorimer.

There is one vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Hughes, of Colorado, making the present voting strength of the senate 91 and 46 a quorum. Mr. Lorimer got a majority of the sitting members.

The position of Senators Frazier and Terrell, who were absent, were announced as both anti-Lorimer. There is a general understanding that Senator Aldrich would have favored Lorimer. Nothing was stated on the floor regarding his attitude.

Confusion Follows Voting.

The scene when the vote was taken was one of the most intense but suppressed excitement. Not until Senator Wetmore, next to the last name on the list, had voted the forty-six pro-Lorimer total complete. The result had been expected, but everybody waited breathlessly for the announcement. It was greeted with applause from the galleries, but as is usual this was quickly suppressed by the presiding officer.

"The resolution is lost," announced the vice president, and instantly the senate was in confusion, people leaving the galleries and the floor. It was some minutes before the senate could resume its proceedings.

In Hurry to Go to It.

When at 11 o'clock the senate convened with a large attendance of members, most of the senators appeared anxious to expedite business with a view to getting to the Lorimer case, except Senator Stone, who insisted upon the full reading of the long journal of yesterday.

Sensor Owen, of Oklahoma, secured the floor and began a speech in opposition to Mr. Lorimer. The Illinois senator occupied a chair against the wall of the chamber and appeared to be giving the closest attention to the Oklahomaan.

Before Mr. Owen began his speech Mr. Beveridge refused to permit the transaction of any other than necessary business.

Owen Sorry for William Lorimer.

"I am sorry for William Lorimer," said Senator Owen impressively as he took the floor. Elaborating upon his sympathy for the Illinois senator Mr. Owen still maintained that a stain had been left upon his good name by the manner of his election to the senate. There had been corruption and bribery in that occurrence, contended the Oklahoma senator, and he said that it was impossible not to believe that Lorimer had not known what was transpiring.

Mr. Owen then produced a telegram from Governor Deneen denying Senator Lorimer's statements regarding himself. As the speaker was preparing comment upon the telegram Senator Heyburn sought to make objection.

Refuses to Yield the Floor.

"Will the senator from Oklahoma yield?" asked the chairman.

"I will not," flatly responded Mr. Owen. The telegram proved to be a categorical reply to all of the Illinois senator's allegations concerning the governor.

The charge that the governor had entered into a conspiracy to obtain the publication of White's confession was pronounced by the telegram to be entirely without foundation.

Governor Deneen also wrote that after the primaries he voted for Hopkins for senator; also that when approached by Lorimer to become a candidate for the senate he had refused the use of his name and had advised the holding of a caucus. Therefore it was not true that he had consented to be a candidate, and had then withdrawn his consent. He had advised his friends, he wrote, not to vote for Lorimer for senator.

Governor's Hand Not In.

Nor was it true, the telegram went on, that the governor sought to elect a speaker of the Illinois house or had opposed Mr. Shurtliff. If Mr. Shurtliff had been nominated by the republican caucus the governor would have supported him. The governor made the point against the Illinois senator that if he could not have elected a speaker, as charged by Lorimer, he could not have elected Hopkins, as Lorimer had said he could have done.

Governor Deneen also declared in the telegram that Lorimer's proposition to elect the governor to the senatorship had involved the use of democratic votes and Mr. Deneen expressed doubts that election by such a course would have the effect of healing breaches in the republican party, as Mr. Lorimer had expressed confidence that it would.

Simmons Defends Lorimer.

Senator Owen concluded his speech at 12:20 and was followed by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina.

Senator Simmons defended Lorimer's title to his seat. He said the evidence was insufficient to show that his election was accomplished by bribery.

Sensor Simmons spoke twenty minutes. Senator Lorimer then took the floor to reply to the Deneen telegram. Senator Owen had read to the senate.

Sensor Lorimer concluded his remarks at 12:50 and was immediately followed by Senator Smith, of Michigan, who is of the opposition.

Brought Crowd to Capital.

The agreement reached yesterday just before the senate adjourned that a vote on the Lorimer case would be taken at 1:30 o'clock today brought senators to the capitol this morning more or less enthusiastic over the prospect of determining a matter which had been thrashed out on the floor for many weeks. They were pleased, also, at the prospects of transacting urgent public business upon which action is imperative.

Not to the members of the senate alone was interest in the day's proceedings confined. Though the hour fixed for the convening of the body was 11 o'clock, visitors began arriving at 9. Long before the hour for convening had come it was clear that the corridors would be thronged during the

PRETTY ROW BREWS

Rotterdam, Holland, March 1.—Rudolph B. Tinsley, director of the Uranium Steamship line, who is now in Berlin, has been prohibited from returning to Holland.

This drastic action of the Dutch authorities is the outcome of the trans-Atlantic emigrant traffic dispute which arose from Germany's refusal to permit Russians returning from America aboard the steamer Volturo to pass through Germany. Tinsley is a British subject. The order of the crown forbidding his presence in Holland was received this morning by the chief commissioner of police. It is based upon the law governing the residence of foreigners in Holland.

REPORTED TO ENGLAND.

London, March 1.—Sir Alan Johnstone, British minister at The Hague, reported to the foreign office today the action of the Dutch government in excluding from Holland Rudolph B. Tinsley, British subject and director of the Uranium Steamship company, a British concern. Communications on the subject are being exchanged between the two capitals.

CHIEF WILL PAY REASONABLE SUM

City Will Seek Return of Measures Sold by an Oversight.

SOLD AS OLD JUNK

Chief Abbott, of the police department, will seek the return of two of the city's standard measures which were sold to Aaron S. Heggman as junk and afterward disposed of at the Slenker second hand store at Lafayette and Montgomery streets. They are of brass and very valuable and were bought by Slenker as old brass. The city will make a proposition to give him what he paid for them, which was a nominal amount, as the first purchaser did not recognize their value.

One is a peck and the other a half bushel and they were in the bin room at police station where, according to the story of Dan Kintz, now sergeant of police and stationmaster at the time he sold them, they had become discolored and dented beyond recognition.

Acting, he says, upon the suggestion of William F. Dorgan, then chief of the department, he called Heggman in and sold him the measures, four or five old bicycle frames and some other junk for fifty cents. This money he said was used to pay for repairs to the station bicycle.

Heggman was called in yesterday afternoon and told practically the same tale Kintz told later when he reported for duty, and the chief, who had been investigating the matter, said he had no reason to disbelieve the story and took no further action. He had, however, laid plans for a field inquiry, as it had been reported to him that the measures had been sold by a police officer and the impression given that they had been deliberately stolen.

The measures were placed on display in the window of Slenker's place and recognized by a former council member, who had been a city father when the measures were bought a quarter of a century ago. It has been the custom at police headquarters for years to sell the junk that accumulates and use the money for incidentals, such as whitewash, paint, disinfectant and other odds and ends needed.

Two Men on the Job and Will Make Thorough Examinations.

THE COURT CASES

Field Deputies Hedges and Johnson from the Indiana accounting department arrived in Fort Wayne today and tomorrow will begin an investigation of the books of the various departments of the county government, starting with the records in the office of the county clerk. They applied to the board of county commissioners for desk room and were assigned to the grand jury room.

Field deputies are as communicative as secret service men and the object of the visit was not made known more than in a general way when they said they would go through all of the offices in the court house and are prepared for a long siege.

This is the second visit deputies have made to Fort Wayne but on the former occasion they confined their efforts to the books of the township trustees. Whether there is any special significance to the examination here is not known.

William E. Gerding the new county clerk, stated today that the examination will be of great benefit to him as he will know where he is "at" right off the reel and can start his books the way the board requires.

No Luck in No. 11.

There is no more luck in being married on the eleventh of the month than there is on the thirteenth. Anna Thomas was married to Charles A. She charges abandonment and failure to provide and wants her maiden name restored. Bailor, Hoffman & Romberg are her attorneys.

Ira S. Campbell wants a divorce from Helena Campbell. He charges she has been unfaithful and recently she has been convicted of living with Charles Starck as his wife. Harry H. Heggman is his attorney.

BOARD WILL GET A REMONSTRANCE

North Harrison Street Property Owners Ready to Put Up Fight.

THE CITY HALL NOTES

Members of the board of public works will get a big remonstrance tomorrow night against the vacation of the intersection of First and Harrison streets as over sixty property owners have signed an objection to the proposed plan and will prevent it at the regular mid-week meeting.

A petition from the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern company was presented some time ago offering two lots recently purchased for a new intersection and asking ground for the erection of an addition to the company's freight house.

Property owners are making a fight in the hope that at some time it will be necessary to relieve the Wells street bridge of traffic by the construction of a new one and think Harrison street may be chosen for the north approach.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Gustavo A. Schwegman presented his bond, took the oath of office and formally entered on the performance of his duties today as successor to Henry Heggman, who recently resigned from the board of public works. He was chartered by President Frank Benoy and given a chance to go over the city plans during the day.

Will Aid the Elks.

At the regular session last night the members of the board of public works assured the Fort Wayne lodge of Elks that they would do all in their power to aid in making the state meeting here in May a success. They stated they would give police protection and make such reasonable concessions as may help the gathering along.

Representatives of a dozen fire hose manufacturers were before the board telling about their wares and the session lasted until after midnight. No contracts were made.

SEEKS WAY TO END DEADLOCK.

Democrats at Albany Anxious to Get Senator Elected.

Albany, N. Y., March 1.—Efforts were made today to bring about a new caucus of democratic members of the legislature to consider a way out of the deadlock over the United States senatorship. Just how the "regulars" in the party will take the initiative of William F. Sheehan that he is ready to step aside if a reconvening caucus does not appear. It is known, however, it is a foregone conclusion that the insurgents, who refused to enter the first caucus, will not participate in a second one should it be called. The intimations are that if it is decided to act upon Mr. Sheehan's suggestion the caucus will be reconvened tomorrow.

GERMANY WANTS TO KNOW.

Anxious to Hear Whether She Will Benefit by Canadian Reciprocity.

Berlin, March 1.—It is reported that the German government has inquired at Washington and Ottawa whether this country will be entitled to the benefits of the American-Canadian reciprocity agreement. The foreign office professes ignorance of the report.

"The Commercial Treaty association" demands that the United States grant the new minimum tariff to Germany, reminding Washington of the provision of the German tariff law of 1910 under which the bündersath is authorized to withdraw concessions to the United States, if existing conditions are changed to the disadvantage of Germany through subsequent treaties with other countries.

WILL DELIVER SERMON.

Coldwater Priest Chosen for St. Patrick's Day Observance.

Rev. Dennis Hayes, pastor of St. Charles Catholic church at Coldwater, Mich., has been selected to deliver St. Patrick's day sermon at the annual observance of the anniversary by the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Fort Wayne. The sermon will be delivered at St. Patrick's church immediately following the annual parade.

RECOVERED RING FOR HER.

Deputy Sheriff Immel Secures It from Man in Hospital.

Deputy Sheriff Immel recovered today for Miss Minnie Percott, of 2529 Thomas street, a ring that had been taken from her by William J. Hall, who is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital. He denied that he had it and an affidavit was to have been filed against him but this was abandoned when he surrendered the property.

CUT AN ARTERY.

W. A. LaPointe, a Boilermaker at the Pennsylvania shops, cut an artery at the base of the index finger of his right hand and badly bruised the middle finger of the hand while shearing tin this morning.

The flow of blood from the artery was stopped by bandages and he was taken hurriedly to the office of the Pennsylvania surgeon, where his injuries were properly attended.

WILL SINK SOME WELLS.

The board of public works has practically decided to drill a few test wells on the property in the east end of the city.

An analysis shows that water taken from wells in the vicinity is free from bacilli and although high in chlorine is pronounced by the state chemist fit for use.

ANOTHER STAY FOR REUF.

San Francisco, March 1.—Abraham Reuf was granted a seven days' stay of execution of judgment today to give him time in which to settle up his affairs before going to San Quentin penitentiary to serve a fourteen-year term for bribery.

PRINTERS STRIKE; NEWSPAPERS TIED

Linotype Operators Walk Out in Chicago and Cripple Things.

WAR NOT APPROVED

Chicago, March 1.—Efforts to settle a strike of linotype operators on two local papers continued today and the other morning papers, by agreement, limited issues to four pages only. The evening papers promised at least that much. The morning papers made no attempt to print advertising matter, and news matter was condensed.

The strike works a particular hardship on the reading public at present, owing to the great interest in the primaries of yesterday and in developments in the United States senate.

FOREIGN EDITIONS OMITTED.

The usual foreign editions of the evening papers were not issued. The publishers hoped to put two editions on the street in reduced form. Instead of the customary half dozen or more. President O'Brien, of Chicago Typographical union, No. 16, has ordered the strike in only one office. So far as possible type for this publication was being set in the other three evening plants. Officers of the chapels, as the individual union organizations of each was called, met to consider the situation.

The question before them was whether to stand by Mr. O'Brien, who ordered the strike, or by James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union, who has officially declared the strike to be "unauthorized, illegal and unwarranted."

Ordered to Keep at Work.

While the chapels were in session a telegram was received from J. W. Hays, vice president of the International union, ordering them to continue setting type for the strike-bound afternoon shop. The remaining Chicago afternoon newspapers will print no more themselves than they are able to put in type for the afflicted papers. Mr. Lynch is said to have left Washington for this city.

THROWN FROM WAGON.

L. M. Ault, Carpenter, Injured in Runaway Accident.

L. M. Ault, a carpenter, was badly bruised and scratched by being thrown from a wagon to the pavement while he was driving north on Clinton street this morning. Mr. Ault's horse became frightened and the wagon landed wheels with another wagon standing near the curb in front of Schlatter's hardware store, the force of the impact throwing Mr. Ault from his seat to the pavement. Citizens passing by went to his assistance and brought the horse under control before it had a chance to run away.

FOUNTAIN COUNTY VOTING.

Indianapolis, March 1.—Attica, Corydon and Veedersburg, the three cities of Fountain county, are today voting under the Proctor local option law. Two years ago the county voted "dry" by a majority of 2,065. For the past week all three cities have been flooded with literature, containing arguments for both sides and the "drys" have held a number of meetings. Attica also has a small margin and Corydon uncertain.

WAS PIONEER STEAM BOATMAN.

Hartford, Conn., March 1.—The body of John Fitch, one of the first exponents of steam navigation, will be removed from its resting place at Fardown, Ky., for burial at South Windsor, this state, where he was born, and a monument will be erected in his honor, if a resolution providing for such action, now under consideration, is adopted by the legislature.

INHUMANLY PUNISHED.

St. Paul, Minn., March 1.—The executive investigating committee in session here heard evidence last night tending to substantiate charges that boys in the state school for delinquent boys at Redwing were severely flogged for infractions of the rules. The boys charged attendants with shacking them to walls by the wrists and thumbs, and with kicking and striking them.

DETAINED AT QUARANTINE.

New York, March 1.—The steamer Caronia, which arrived yesterday from Mediterranean ports where cholera was recently prevalent and was detained at quarantine because of a suspicious case of illness on board, was released this morning. The result of the examination was negative.

WILL CHOSE THE SITE.

At the meeting of the congregation of the Children of Israel, one of the branches of the Jewish church, on Sunday night the site for the building of the new church, which will be erected this summer, will be decided. The congregation has several desirable locations in view.

IN COLLISION AT SEA.

Havre, France, March 1.—The British freight steamer Philadelphia from Baltimore for Havre and Antwerp arrived today in a damaged condition. The freighter was in collision with the steamer Empress off Caske's light Monday. The Empress was also damaged and put in at Dartmouth.

BROTHERS FATALLY HURT.

Princeton, Ind., March 1.—Frank and Elbert E. Young were arrested at Princeton today at the Southern railroad shop where they were employed as car repairers. They were under a car when it was bumped into by cut-off cars, knocking the jack from beneath it. Both men were badly crushed.

HELD AS COUNTERFEITERS.

St. Louis, Mo., March 1.—Rode Payne and Elbert E. Young were arrested at St. Louis today by federal secret service operatives on charges of passing counterfeit money. Before they could be confined at the money was obtained from a Chicago pho-

Train Looting Mountain Bandits Missed to Loot Had $100,000.

DO JOB IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Mo., March 1.—Detectives and police are without a trace today of the two bandits who robbed the safe in the Iron Mountain train, No. 4, in the city limits after they had bound and gagged the Pacific Express company's messenger. The messenger, M. M. McRoberts, was cajoled with his employees this morning. The amount of money secured by the robbers has not been announced. It is thought the bandits had intended to rob train No. 8, which came into the city on No. 4's time. The train which was robbed arrived late.

day, or at least until after the vote on the Lorimer case had been taken.

Day after day there had been expectation that a vote might be reached but not until today was there certainty of the fact. That the senate had agreed that there should be a vote without debate left no doubt in the public mind that the hour mentioned would be the conclusion of the case that for so long had held chief place on the senate boards.

The Beveridge Resolution.

Inasmuch as the majority of the committee on privileges and elections did not accompany its report exonerating Senator Lorimer with a resolution upon which a vote could be taken in the senate the action today was in connection with the Beveridge resolution. This resolution is as follows:

"Resolved, That William Lorimer was not duly and legally elected to a seat in the senate of the United States by the legislature of the state of Illinois."

The negative votes, therefore, were cast by those who favor the Illinois senator's retention of his seat. A majority of the senate voting in opposition to the resolution has the effect of confirming Senator Lorimer's title to the seat he occupies.

Of course it was possible for a member of the committee on privileges and elections, or any other senator for that matter, to offer a substitute resolution, but Chairman Burrows announced today that so far as he was concerned the senate will vote on the Beveridge measure. The agreement reached yesterday was in connection with the Beveridge resolution and friends of Senator Lorimer say they have no desire to interfere with the order of the senate as defined in the unanimous consent of the agreement.

The fact that a vote was surely to be had and that under the existing agreement there was no chance for a filibuster on either side, materially lessened the intensity of feeling which has characterized the senate during the past few days. There was, in fact, a marked relaxation of attention on the senate floor, and during the morning many seats were vacant.

Galleries, however, were filled to their capacity early in the day, and by 1 o'clock, half an hour before the vote was to be taken, not only was every seat filled but there were crowds in the corridors outside the gallery doors. Members of the lower house filled the available seats in the corners of the senate floor and many were standing.

Sensor Lorimer made one more speech in his own behalf. Referring evidently to certain assertions made of Oklahoma, in the course of a bitter anti-Lorimer speech, Mr. Lorimer by inference accused him of unfairness in reading into the senate records only telegrams unfavorable to Lorimer and withholding others favorable to him. Senators Owen and William Alden Smith, the latter from Michigan, made speeches against Lorimer; Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, spoke in favor of Lorimer.

At 1 o'clock pursuant to the agreement of yesterday the proceedings were interrupted by the taking up of the tariff board bill as "unfinished business."

Sensor Beveridge moved that it "be temporarily laid aside." This was agreed to and the speeches on the Lorimer case were resumed.

NAMED LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Muskegon, Mich., March 1.—While Hugh L. Nichols, of Clermont county, O., state chairman of the democratic party, was attending the democratic convention here today, he was notified by wire by Governor Harmon that he has been appointed lieutenant governor to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Altee Pomeroy to the United States senate.

CITY BREVITIES.

Rev. N. O. Speltz, superintendent of the South Bend district of the Anti-Saloon league, is in the city today.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First M. E. church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the church parlors.

Robert Wardrop, president of the People's National bank at Pittsburg, is expected in the city within a few days to visit his son, W. M. Wardrop, recently appointed superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad here.

DISCHARGES GRANTED.

The United States court has granted discharges in bankruptcy to Robert R. Clear, Albion; John Connors, Garrett; Clarence M. Moody, Garrett, and Elton I. Pettit, Elkhart.

DUNNE WILL NOT YIELD TO RIVAL

Defeated Candidate for the Nomination in Chicago Wants Count.

HARRISON A WINNER

Chicago, March 1.—Complete unofficial police returns from yesterday's primaries give Charles E. Merriam, republican, a plurality of 28,120 votes. Carter H. Harrison is given a plurality of 1,556 over Judge Dunne for the democratic nomination. Judge Dunne declined to accept the police returns as final. "They have proved erroneous in the past and the official count may make me the candidate," said Judge Dunne.

Merriam's victory was more of a surprise than Harrison's. He literally ran away from his competitors and got more votes than the two leaders next to him. Harrison's running was amazing as it was unexpected even by his friends.

The "regular" organization was swept aside and buried under an avalanche of ballots. The independent organization assembled by Harrison and his lieutenants, most of whom have been out of politics for five or six years, carried a majority of the wards. Mr. Dunne captured most of the remainder.

Bloodshed and violence marked the day at the polls. Never was such a day in Chicago for bitterness at the polling places. An army of 15,000 voters watched the ballots for the three democratic rivals, and another regiment of "tin star" police from the election board watched the watchers. There was much fighting in the tough sections. Barrels were stove in at both ends, and precinct workers, paid at a rate of $5 for the day, swarmed over Chicago, clustering around the polls like bees around the honey pot.

put in a four track system and was drawn for their benefit, according to Senator Proctor.

Bills passed include the relief of Sylvester Francis, of Lagrange county, and the Greenwell bill increasing the salaries of the auditors of Allen and Vanderburg counties to $10,000 a year.

On the Greenwell bill there was a small fight on account of the incorporation of Vanderburg county in the bill on a motion by Senator Durre. Senator Carleton, who has been a consistent "watch dog" of the county treasurers, opposed the bill and the amendment on the ground that the raise was against the desires of the people of Vanderburg county.

Senator Durre declared that though the present incumbent was a democrat he deserved the raise and the conditions justified it. On the vote the bill passed by a vote of 26 to 21.

The senate passed the Strickland house resolution for the erection of a memorial and museum building to be devoted to the American Indian. The committee on claims in the senate has killed the Durre bill to reimburse William H. Draper for brevity reports of the proceedings of a session of the general assembly and the signing of the caboose bill and the inspection of locomotive boilers bill by the governor were reported to the senate.

On the invitation of the majority, James E. Watson, former congressman and Governor Marshall's opponent in the last gubernatorial contest, addressed the house of representatives this afternoon. In opening his speech Mr. Watson said he had no message for the legislature; that he once hoped to have delivered a message to the Indiana law-makers, but that time had passed. He spoke of the change from rabid partisanship and concluded his remarks by congratulating the members of the legislature on the good that had been done.

GOVERNOR SIGNS BILLS.

Indianapolis, March 1.—Many bills signed by Governor Marshall today include three applying to railroads, the Best measure requiring railroads to furnish a twenty-four foot caboose, the Stoenburg bill for the inspection of locomotive boilers, and the Wood bill authorizing railroads to hold stock or guarantee bonds of companies organized to build or acquire terminals.

Other bills signed by the governor today were: Ryse school corporation bill, Parks bill permitting cities to issue bonds to take up indebtedness caused by court judgments and the Oldaker bill permitting municipalities to purchase land for school purposes. The batch of bills sent to the governor today for his signature contained the four weekly wage bill, a platform measure.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

LIGHT QUESTION AT KENDALLVILLE

City Must Expend $25,000 for Improvements or Buy Its Light from T. & C. I.

Kendallville, Ind., March 1.—A vital question which is soon to come before the city council in the near future is the providing of sufficient electricity for the lighting of the street lamps and also for the consumers of electricity in the residence and business districts.

While this fact is only too well known by the council in general, it was elicited at the adjourned session Monday evening by Mr. Watson, a representative of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who sells dynamo and other electrical appliances, and who paid a visit to the municipal plant and investigated the situation.

During his address to the council he said, "I find in examining your plant at the station that you are obliged to overload the generator much more than the actual capacity. Your present machine is so constructed that it will carry 10 per cent. overload for a period of three hours and when it is operated for a longer time there is a great risk of burning out the coils, as was experienced but recently. This tends to show that you should install a larger machine which would generate more electricity."

The installing of a larger machine would mean a big expense to the city, as it would necessitate the purchasing of a new engine, the construction of another new smoke stack and a general overhauling of the entire plant at a cost of possibly $25,000.

Officials of the T. & C. I. have had the question of furnishing the city electricity up before Mayor Field and Chairman Fred Hess, of the electric light committee, and according to Traffic Manager G. M. Patterson, the company can furnish the city with electricity much cheaper than it can be generated at the city plant under present conditions, as they are equipped with sufficient power to light the entire county, carrying a voltage of 33,000 both day and night.

AUBURN TO GET POST FACTORY

Manufacturing Plant Assured—Two Available Sites Under Consideration.

Auburn, Ind., March 1.—Representing the "Never Rot Staple Post Company," J. P. Montz, of Westerville, O., came to Auburn and began negotiations with the Commercial club looking to locating a commodious factory here in the near future. Mr. Montz was in the city yesterday morning and was escorted about town in an automobile occupied by several live "boosters."

The committee from the Commercial club, with Mr. Montz, investigated available sites for the proposed enterprise and have two locations now under consideration, although no definite agreement has yet been reached.

The company seeking location in Auburn is asking from the Commercial club no more than the ground upon which to construct its buildings. If it locates here it will be incorporated at $10,000, and the articles will cover the counties of DeKalb, Lagrange, Allen, Noble, Whitely and Steuben. Manufactured by the company will be Bennett concrete fence posts, brick tile, grave vaults and cement blocks. While the parent institution will be located in Auburn, if arrangements can be made, the company proposes in the course of a few years to install branch institutions in other surrounding counties.

OPTION PETITION FILED.

Warsaw "Dry" Secured More Than Enough Signers—Townships File.

Warsaw, Ind., March 1.—The petition for a special local option election in Warsaw was filed with the county auditor yesterday morning by a committee of the Warsaw Ministers' association, who with many helpers throughout the city, have been circulating the petition for signers for the last few days. The canvass was hurriedly made. Many voters were not reached. The busy canvassers were not able to find them at home. But if the number of signatures (between five and six hundred) is any indication of the election Warsaw and every township in the county will vote dry with a greater majority than was rolled up two years ago.

Dr. E. S. Scott, of Winona Lake, was at the auditor's office with over 50 per cent of the names of voters in Wayne township outside the city of Warsaw. Plain township has also filed a good strong list. In all the other townships canvassers are busy and petitions are expected to be filed soon.

HAVE REQUIRED NAMES.

Columbia City, Ind., March 1.—The petition circulated by the Ministerial association of this city for requiring the county commissioners to call a local option election now has 175 names, which is six more than is needed according to the new option law. The petitioners have until Saturday to file their petition and it was their intention to get 200 names before taking action; however, this has proven a rather difficult mark to reach and at their meeting Monday the ministers decided to file the petition soon, perhaps today.

LARGE HORSE SALE.

Kendallville, Ind., March 1.—One of the largest crowds that ever attended a sale in this vicinity was in the city yesterday for the John Campbell sale of fancy draught horses and a span of mules. Mr. Campbell brought these horses here from East St. Louis and all of them were fine specimens. He stated that he had the horses gathered from Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska and wanted to know which were the best. Thomas Wilkinson, the local auctioneer, cried the sale which began at the Rutledge feed barn at 2 o'clock.

VICTIM OF HORSE THIEF.

Hartford City, Ind., March 1.—William Byrd, Wells county farmer, under indictment for conducting a "fence" for stolen horses, was the victim of a thief himself Monday when a horse and buggy was stolen from him at Markle. The outfit was later recovered at Kingsland. Byrd was arrested about a year ago on information gained from a gang of thieves caught in Grant county. He was tried on one charge and acquitted by a jury, but several other cases against him remain to be heard.

FALLS INTO FURNACE PIT.

Hartford City, Ind., March 1.—A. J. Klugh, custodian of the Masonic temple, met with a painful accident yesterday morning while working around the building. Mr. Klugh had gone to the cellar to look after the furnace when he was seized with a dizzy spell and fell into the furnace pit. He struck the left side of his head on the cement wall and his ear was almost torn off. A physician dressed the injury.

TO PAY OFF BONDS.

Huntington, Ind., March 1.—An agreement has been filed in the office of the city clerk whereby the city of Huntington will undertake the payment of $10,000 worth of waterworks bonds which are now being held by the Vermont Savings Bank of Battlesboro, Vt. The bonds are due April 1 and the agreement provided that the first payment be $1,000 or a multiple of that amount. Other payments are to take place every six months.

Dr. C. Keilen, representing The D. M. F. Rheumatic Co., of Chicago, is in the city calling on the drug trade.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME.

Live Coal the Supposed Cause—Woman Has Narrow Escape.

Bluffton, Ind., March 1.—The large frame residence belonging to Benjamin Ashbacher, located just west of his studio on West Washington street, and occupied by Mrs. Kate Grove, was gutted by fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Grove had a close call from being caught in the burning building, and when the cracking of the flames awakened her the fire was spreading to all parts of the house. The city department was on the scene in a few minutes and worked heroically for fully an hour before the fire was under control. Mrs. Grove carried $300 insurance on her household goods. Mr. Ashbacher also carried insurance of $1,000 on the building, which will cover his loss. The blaze is thought to have originated from the kitchen range.

The flames had gained a good headway when the department arrived and only their hard work saved the rear portion of the Ashbacher studio and the Burgan shoe shop, on the west side of the residence.

RE-ELECT OFFICERS

Bluffton Prohibitionists Meet and Plan Coming Work.

Bluffton, Ind., March 1.—The meeting of the prohibition forces of the county was held yesterday afternoon in their quarters over the Meyer & Klompfens garage. The meeting was held for the purpose of perfecting the organization, and to lay out a general plan of their work for the next two years.

F. M. Lough, of Indianapolis, state chairman of the party, was in the city and was introduced at the meeting by Theodore Ellingham, county chairman. Mr. Lough delivered an excellent talk on the state and national affairs of the party, what they were doing, etc. The talk was full of interest, and held the closest attention all the time he was on the floor. Other people from over the county gave short talks.

A motion was made to retain the officers who have served for the past two years and the re-election was made unanimous. The officers are: Theodore Ellingham, chairman and treasurer; A. T. Merriman, vice chairman; W. W. Ankel, secretary.

SEES A YELLOW PERIL.

Earl Gray, governor general of Canada, has a vision that can conjure worse possibilities and more horrific prospects than annexation of the dominion by the United States. Beware the "teeming millions" of the Orient and learn to shoot, for comes a time when the yellow peril, long in suspension, will begin to swoop. Then what? This is what Earl Gray said to the Dominion Rifle association:

"In China there are 400,000,000 Chinese who have been bullied by a mere handful of Europeans, and have been educated by the Russo-Japanese war to realize that if they do not want to be bullied any further by a few trained Europeans they must organize as a fighting nation.

"If 400,000,000 of the hardiest of mankind because they are not trained can be bullied by a small number of trained Europeans, what is to be your position when these 400,000,000 become trained? What is to happen to you unless you take care to keep your people trained sufficiently to enable you to repel with success any return of the compliments we have paid China in the past? If that was a serious question last year, it is a still more serious question this year."

The Yellow Peril is training some, but it is probable that before it gets to the stage of military efficiency that can be regarded as any menace to western lands Russia and Japan will have made it clear that the "teeming millions" can find all of the war game they want right at home. Of course, looking a century or two ahead, if one wants to borrow trouble on long time, there's really no saying what may happen. But by the arrival of that far-off day surely we shall have Canada in with us and of us there need be no fear. We shall have some "teeming millions" of our own by then.

OPTION ELECTIONS.

It would be insincere to say the results of the option elections under the new law are not important or that they are not disappointing to the temperance people of the state. But closely looked at the figures may afford much encouragement for the future. In some of the larger cities where option elections were held Tuesday the saloons were voted back by the barest majorities according to returns at hand when this is written. Wabash was carried "wet" by 123; Huntington by 123; Marion by 40; Kokomo by 32; Kendallville by 145; Decatur by 187; Rushville by 56; Connersville by 36. These are majorities, certainly, but so narrow in such cities as Kokomo and Marion as to distress the defeated interests with the reflection that just a little more effort might have turned the tide of battle. These narrow majorities also refute the claim that in the cities where the saloons have been closed under the county option law for the past two years the sentiment for a return to licensed traffic was overwhelming. The vote nowhere shows ground for such a claim. On the other hand Delphi, Greencastle, Tipton, Noblesville and other places remained "dry," though as in the cases of the communities that voted "wet," the margin was narrow. Other elections will soon be held and a clearer line on the general sentiment of the state will be had. But there is so far no sign of a strong revolt against the no-saloon conditions. In many of the places the majorities are so small that another test is invited at the earliest opportunity the law can vouchsafe.

The resolution to submit to the states the proposed amendment for electing United States senators by direct vote failed in the senate for want of the constitutional two-thirds vote, although four more votes would have carried it. This result was more or less expected of the senate as at present constituted. The next senate will see such changes as doubtless will assure the adoption of the resolution and the ultimate ratification of the amendment by practically all of the states. It has been a long and fitful struggle to bring the matter to such point as to give it a look of promise, but that is where the senate left it Monday when the last name on the rollcall was answered. The next time it will win.

Booze comes back in several parts of Indiana. Carter Harrison comes back in Chicago. Groundhog comes back in front end of March. United States senate comes back to some extent though less violently reactionary than formerly. Mister Jeffries should have dated himself up ahead for his affair with Mistah Johnsing. He got in bad on planetary conjunctions or something of that sort.

In a beneficent and humane purpose the national house of representatives has agreed to spend $5,000. The manufacture of phosphorous matches is to be investigated after much agitation by humanitarians, labor leaders and sociological students. Congress has been under much pressure in this matter for a good while before the appropriation bill was passed after Representative Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, had explained that the Ways and Means Committee could not see its way to acting favorably on the bill of Representative Esch, of Wisconsin, to tax the white and yellow phosphorous match industry out of existence until it had made up its mind that by so doing it would not give a complete monopoly to the Diamond Match company. That company owns the French patents for making matches without white and yellow phosphorous. The object of the Esch bill is to relieve workers in match factories from the danger of contracting necrosis of the jaw bone, which results from the handling of white and yellow phosphorous.

The "automatically wet" danger of the new option bill may be corrected. "Dry" territory which is a part of any unit that votes "wet" but lying outside the boundaries of such unit remains "dry" according to the provisions of an amendment passed by the Indiana house. There has been some deep misgiving on this score in the vicinity of cities where townships are in part rural and in part urban and the re-establishment of road houses and remote dives that pander to a vicious class of trade became a prospect that called for attention. That part of a township of such character that has been voted "dry" remains so until the people of the territory vote it otherwise. This is a wise, reasonable and just provision of law and the amendment should be enacted.

There are a lot of United States senators that for personal reasons have little favor to show the proposal that they go out among the people the next time they want to be re-elected.

Whether Mr. Lorimer remains in his seat or not, he has given that seat and the state to which it is accredited a reputation to which all feeling citizens can point with pride.

A THIRTY YEARS' DISAPPEARANCE.

(Pittsburg Dispatch.)

The vindication of the Rev. Mr. Burdette, of Springfield, Mass., from the suspicion of stealing $3,500 contained in registered letters 30 years ago is complete, but it has a recoil on other agencies. In 1881, he, as postal clerk in Peoria, Ill., received and put into a mail bag 12 registered letters containing $3,500, which were entered in the registry book. But the railway mail clerk failed to find the letters that the book called for, and reported the loss. Suspicion fell on Mr. Burdette, but nothing positive could be proved. He studied for the ministry, served on foreign missions, and is now preaching in Springfield.

A few days ago in an old mailbag sent to the San Francisco postoffice shops for repair the 12 letters with the $3,500 were found in the leather lining. It had been traveling around the country for 30 years. Presumably the bag had been filled and emptied some ten thousand times, but the letters remained in their hiding place. Mr. Burdette is vindicated except from haste and carelessness in putting the valuable letters into the bag. But it leaves inferences as to the care of the service, which would be damaging if it were not the exceptional case out of scores of millions.

How was it that the first railway clerk when he found $3,500 that should have been in the bag missing did not examine the bag thoroughly enough to find the valuable letters that were there? Think of the thousands of other mail clerks who have emptied the bag day after day and year after year but never carefully enough to find the letters. Next to Mr. Burdette the one thing vindicated is durability of the mail bag, which, though in 1881, was in such bad repair as to let the 12 letters slip back of the lining, stuck to them during the vicissitudes of 30 years' postal travel.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

(Strand Magazine for March.)

The Associated Press is unique among news-gathering agencies in that it is purely mutual in its character, the other big news agencies of the world being proprietary concerns. It issues no stock, makes no profit and declares no dividends. The Associated Press does not sell news, but is a clearing house for the interchange of news among its members. Its membership consists of eight hundred daily newspapers published in the United States, each of which contributes to the common budget all news of national and international interest and importance originating in its vicinity, besides paying a weekly assessment representing its share of the general expense of conducting the business, and having a vote in the election of the management. In making up the assessments an equitable system is followed which provides that the heaviest tax shall fall upon the largest newspapers. The annual revenues of the Associated Press, derived from these assessments levied upon its members, amount to some three million dollars, while the number of words daily received and transmitted at each of the more important offices is over fifty thousand, or equivalent of thirty-five columns of the average newspaper.

The Associated Press serves all but six of the morning daily newspapers in the United States which take telegraphic service. It furnishes more than one-half of the news the papers print, and its dispatches appear in newspapers having an aggregate issue of over fifteen million copies a day.

MURDERERS NOT TO INHERIT.

(Minneapolis Journal.)

Minneapolis attorneys are preparing a bill which the legislature will be asked to pass, providing that a murderer may not share in the estate of his victim. As the law now stands a husband may murder his wife, and still inherit her property, or vice versa. The statute was so interpreted in the case of Mrs. Matilda Golinik, of Little Falls, convicted of murdering her husband. An attempt was made to keep the property from her, but the supreme court, in November, held that the homestead must pass to her.

A NEW FIELD FOR THE COLONEL.

(Indianapolis Star.)

The Indiana woman suffragists should persuade Mr. Roosevelt to come out and address the Indiana legislature in their behalf. At one of his meetings in Chicago on Wednesday he took occasion to remark: "Personally, I am in favor of giving the franchise to all persons, irrespective of sex." This is, perhaps, the first time he has publicly expressed this view and as a new adherent of "the cause" he will doubtless receive warm welcome from the active promoters.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"THE THIEF."

Great Play Opens Three Days' Engagement Thursday Evening.

Reinhold Wolf, dramatic editor of the New York Morning Telegraph, praises unqualifiedly "The Thief," the dramatic sensation which had its premiere at the Lyceum theater, New York, and ran for two solid years. He says: "Originality, intensity, directness, suspense and pathos 'The Thief' has in a wonderful degree. It is powerful and it is human. Once the story begins each scene is a 'big' scene. One hangs on every word and every word is significant. 'The Thief' first of all must stand as an example of structural perfection and there is not a dramatist in America today whose work gives the most ardent patriot reason to believe that he can equal it." "The Thief" is scheduled for Thursday evening, Friday evening and Saturday matinee and night.

Harold Treatment.

Fred Mace, who plays Colonel Popoff in "The Chocolate Soldier" company, was somewhat ill a few days and the doctor said to him: "For several days, Fred, you must abstain from brandy, whisky and even beer. You must not drink anything that is calculated to excite you. You must drink nothing but water." "But, my dear doctor, there is nothing that excites me so much as to drink water," the comedian replied in tones of heart-rending anguish.

WITHOUT A PEER.

A pretty compliment was paid to "Uncle Joe" Cannon at a dinner in Danville.

As all the world knows, a "Cannon suspender" has been put on the Danville market. A young tailor, in the course of the dinner, said to the guest of honor:

"I beg your pardon, but what kind of suspenders do you wear, sir?" "They call them Cannons, young man," the other answered.

"How absurd!" said the tailor, with a bow and a smile. "As if there could be a pair of Cannons."

Patterson-Fletcher Co.'s great half price sale will close next Saturday night.

Suffragists in Albany, wishing to impress upon the members of the New York legislature the demand for "votes for women," managed to introduce an unexpected feature into a local moving picture show with the connivance of the theater manager. They had thrown on the screen a picture of a well dressed man and woman meeting at the ballot box and depositing their votes together. Mrs. James L. Laidlaw appeared on the stage and made a brief speech, asking approval of the scene displayed in the picture. The audience after some persuasion gave unanimous support.

LENTEN SEASON IS USHERED IN

High Masses and Distribution of Blessed Ashes on Ash Wednesday.

SERVICES FOR LENT

Today, Ash Wednesday, ushered in the holy season of Lent. High masses, preceded by the distribution of blessed ashes, were celebrated in all of the local Catholic churches, and were largely attended. This evening at 7:30 the regular Lenten evening devotion will begin at the cathedral, followed by a sermon appropriate to Lent and closing with benediction of the blessed sacrament. On Friday evenings, at the same hour, the way of the cross will be held in the churches. At the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, St. Patrick's, St. Peter's, St. Mary's and the Precious Blood churches services will be held during the Lenten season on Wednesday and Friday evenings and at St. Paul's church on Tuesday and Friday evenings. A list of those who will deliver the sermons has previously appeared in these columns.

On Sundays at the 7:45 o'clock mass at St. Mary's church Rt. Rev. Mgr. Oechtering will preach a special Lenten sermon in English. The Wednesday evening sermons by Rev. Gustave Hottenroth, at St. Mary's, will be in German. His general topic is "St. Peter," and this evening he will preach on "St. Peter's Denial of Christ and Repentance." Rev. Michael Aichinger will preach Wednesday evening at St. Peter's and the rector, Rev. Charles Thiele, will deliver a Lenten sermon every Sunday.

Parochial School.
Plans and specifications for the first Catholic parochial school in Monroeville are complete and the new building will be erected this season under the direction of Rev. Norbert Feldon, pastor of St. Rose church.

Spring Festival.
The latter part of April a spring festival will be held at St. Paul's Catholic school hall. Rev. H. F. Jos. Kroll and his parishioners are already preparing for the coming event.

A Growing Congregation.
In order to accommodate the large and growing congregation of St. Patrick's Catholic church, of which Rev. Joseph E. Delaney is rector, plans are under way to increase the seating capacity of the church.

CALVARY U. B. CHURCH.

Young Women's Mission Band Elected Officers.

The Young Women's Missionary band of the Calvary United Brethren church, at a meeting held Monday evening at the home of Miss Goldie Weaver, 2235 Oliver street, elected officers for the year as follows:

President—Mrs. Jesse Rayl.
Vice President—Miss Rebecca Menefee.

Secretary—Miss Georgia Bell.

Assistant Secretary—Miss Ruth Lackey.

Treasurer—Miss Blanch Rayl.

The delegates chosen to the branch meeting to be held at Ligonier on March 28-30, were Mrs. Jesse Rayl and Miss Rebecca Menefee.

The reports made by the officers showed the work done by the band during the year and were of a most encouraging character.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

The Crescent Avenue and St. Paul's M. E. Meetings.

The Amaranth Bible circle of the Crescent Avenue Evangelical church will hold its monthly business meeting and social Friday evening of this week at the home of Miss Irene Davis, 917 Lake avenue. The secretary, Nellie Rhodes, urges a general attendance. The meeting begins at 7:30.

The Ladies' Aid society of the St.

Paul's M. E. church will hold its regular monthly business meeting and tea at the home of Mrs. F. O. Hare, 1319 Pontiac street, Thursday of this week from 2 to 5 o'clock. At this meeting officers for the coming year will be elected.

AUDITORIUM ENLARGED.
Improvements Planned at St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

Plans for the enlargement of the auditorium of the St. Patrick's Catholic church, or at least the increasing of its seating capacity, are being talked of, but as yet no decisive steps in that direction have been taken. The large attendance at the church, especially on Sundays, necessitates this move. Very frequently the seating capacity of the church is not large enough to seat the crowds attending.

A THANK OFFERING.

Program Given by Women's Society of Simpson Church.

BOOZE COMES BACK TO SEVERAL CITIES

Rome City and Brimfield, as well as a portion of the town of Wolcottville, was carried by the "wets" in the local option election yesterday by a majority of 36. The Rome City precinct gave a "wet" majority of 31, while of the two remaining precincts, one gave a majority of 13 dry and the other 18 wet.

No Saloons for Laoto.
Laoto, Ind., March 1.—Saw township remained in the "dry" column at the local option election yesterday, returning a majority of 77 against the return of saloons. Both precincts in the township went "dry," the total vote being: Dry, 153; wet, 96.

CLOSE VOTE AT MARION.

Saloons Win in Grant County Capital by Narrow Figure.

Marion, Ind., March 1.—Returns from the local option election yesterday show that the city of Marion has given a wet majority of approximately 40 votes.

The city of VanBuren voted dry by a majority of 153, and Fairmount returned a dry majority of 449.

WETS WIN IN DECATUR.

Adams County Capital Gives a Majority of 187 for Saloons.

Decatur, Ind., March 1.—Decatur voters by a majority of 187 at the option election yesterday indicated their preference for the licensed saloon as against the dry conditions which have prevailed during the past two years, and the size of the majority surprised both the wets and the dries. The struggle was a strenuous but an orderly one, and in "A" precinct of the First ward the vote was a tie, the other five precincts voting wet by the following figures:

	Dry.	Wet.	Mag.
First ward "A".....	122	122	—
First ward "B".....	42	54	12
Second ward "A".....	78	140	71
Second ward "B".....	65	69	4
Third ward "A".....	57	154	97
Third ward "B".....	116	119	3
Total.....	480	687	187

Petitions have now been filed for elections in Hartford and Root townships.

MARION GIVES "WET" MAJORITY

Balance of Grant County Votes in Favor of "Dry."

Marion, Ind., March 1.—Unofficial returns give the "wets" a majority in the city of Marion of 35 votes. The "dries" allege illegal voting in what is known as the Johnson precinct in Marion and will likely contest the election. Though Marion has gone "wet" by a bare majority, the "dries" in the county as a whole show a considerable gain over two years ago. Gas City, the second city in the county, is "dry" by 25.

Yesterday's elections were most exciting in the history of the town. No general political election ever aroused such interest. Hundreds of people filled the streets last night in front of newspaper offices to get returns. The vote cast in all parts of the county was heavy. Scores of automobiles were used in Marion in getting out the vote. The church bells were rung every hour as reminders to voters.

Van Buren and Richland townships, where the "wets" had high hopes, went "dry." The "wets" had hoped that they would easily carry Gas City, and they were much surprised here by the "dry" victory. The general sentiment, however, had been in favor of Marion going "dry," and the possibility of its being "wet" is most surprising. Because of a belief that votes in Marion would be very close and that the "dries" had some advantage, the "wets" had offered to bet little money.

STUDENT VOTE CARRIES DAY.

Temperance Forces Win in Greencastle by Small Majority.

Greencastle, Ind., March 1.—The official count in the election held here yesterday shows that Greencastle went dry by 68 majority. The vote was the heaviest ever polled in an option election. Franklin township went dry by 223 majority, and the dries carried Washington township, the other place where an election was held in this county yesterday, by 155. In the outside districts the vote was not as heavy as it was in the city, due to the fact that the wets did not contest the election.

The determining factor in yesterday's election in Greencastle was the student vote of DePauw university. More than 100 students cast their ballot in favor of the dries, despite the fact that the wets fought their voting to the last ditch. At every polling

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

A young men's society has been organized at St. Paul's Lutheran church. The Miami Democratic club meets tonight at Arion hall.

March came in like a lion—or as near like the robust beast as the people want.

Both Barnum and Forepaugh will visit Fort Wayne this season. Marriage licenses: Nicholas Hauchbach and Rose Lindeman; Christ Royhans and Louise Ellisen.

D. R. McFeeley will referee the Kank-Jawkesworth fight at the Temple tonight. The fight will be to a finish and considerable money is wagered on the result.

Billy Meyer, of the Bank saloon, and Louis Neimeyer, of Golden & Monahan's, have leased the picture store building on Calhoun street, near Jefferson, and will open a gent's furnishing goods house.

Capt. Mike Connors, of the Seventh ward engine house, says: "I have been in the fire department for more than twenty years, and during that time have attended many fires that have been credited with having originated from lamp explosions. While place in each ward the wets had challengers stationed, and as long as a student appeared and attempted to vote, he was challenged. In only one instance was there serious trouble. Herschel Jones, of Lebanon, Ind., was arrested for illegal voting when he appeared at the booth in the north precinct of the Second ward. Members of the faculty signed affidavits to the effect that he was a resident of this city and he was released. Both sides hired carriages and automobiles to bring voters to the polls, and it is claimed the vote in the city will equal the last gubernatorial majority.

The official returns show the following vote in Greencastle: Greencastle—First ward, 35 dry, 163 wet; Second ward, north, 63 dry, 53 wet; Second, south, 137 dry, 22 wet; Third ward, east, 65 dry, 80 wet; Third, west, 81 dry, 66 wet; Fourth ward, 119 dry, 68 wet.

VOTES "DRY" BY FIFTY-SEVEN.

Campaign in Delphi Was Made Personal by Circular.

Delphi, Ind., March 1.—Delphi is dry by 57. The vote by wards follows: First, 66 to 70 wet; Second, 107 to 126 wet; Third, 120 to 68 dry; Fourth, 47 to 19 dry. The majority of the "dries" is attributed to circulars distributed during the last few days, in which the campaign was made a personal affair between the "wet" committee and W. C. Smith, leader of the "dries" and president of the canning company of this city, which employs a large number of men. Many business men, either "wet" or indifferent to the result, resented bringing Mr. Smith's personality into the campaign and came out for the "dries." After last Sunday, when Mr. Smith made reply to the questions of the "wet" committee, it was generally conceded that the city would go dry.

LAW WAS SUSPENDED.

New Orleans Mardi Gras Comes to End With Great Orgy.

New Orleans, La., March 1.—With a day and night of frolic the Mardi Gras festivities closed last night. The Gay-Shantuck law was temporarily suspended and women shared with men the privilege of slipping gin fixers and other favorite New Orleans beverages at the bars. An enormous parade in honor of Comus, the god of pleasure, was held yesterday and two great balls were attended by thousands of merry-makers last night. Three persons met death in the streets yesterday. Dorothy Louise Seymour, ten years old, frolicking with playmates, all masked, stepped in front of a street car and was crushed to death. Peter Cotton shot and killed John Sutton, Cotton, with a four-year-old child, was watching a Mardi Gras parade when it is said, he was attacked by Sutton because of an old grudge. A negro stabbed and killed a negro in a fight in the tenderloin district.

About 100 loads of ashes has been delivered, that making a shortage of 3,900 loads. Will you kindly reduce this shortage by prompt action?

the records bear them out in the matter I am certain not one of them was caused in that way. I have experimented some, and have never been able to explode a lamp. I know it is an error when they say a lamp exploded; such a thing is impossible. A lamp may be fired being overturned and the oil ignited, but a clear case of explosion is an impossibility."

Dr. G. W. McCaskey, Dr. K. K. Wheelock and Dr. Charles R. Dryer, committee, extend an invitation to the general public to attend the commencement exercises of the Fort Wayne College of Medicine at the circuit court room on the evening of March 2.

The young people of the Wayne Street M. E. church will give a grand concert at the church parlors tomorrow evening, with numbers on the program by Miss K. R. Woodman, Dottie Roylan, the Misses Schneider, L. H. Murfin and W. Carver, W. D. Kyle, the Misses Harter and Eakin, Miss Genie McLachlan, Prof. J. A. Malar, Miss Josie Hartman, Miss M. L. Buried Three Women and Ten Children and is Down and Out.

CITY COURT DOCKET

Albert Snowberger, a civil war veteran more than 70 years of age, explained in the city court this morning that he has a good friend here in one of the members of a local undertaking firm. He also stated that he had buried three "women" and ten children and the court understood readily why he should choose a funeral director as one of his intimate friends.

The old gentleman is out of the Marion national home and was arrested on Harrison street because he persisted in going into one of the saloon back doors about as fast as the proprietor could put him out at the front. He said he was down and out and promised he would get back to the soldiers' home right away if the judge would let him go. He got the chance.

Just a Plain Drunk.

Willard Painter was not willing to plead to public intoxication in the city court until he was assured that it was simply the legal term for plain drunk. When he was set right on the point he admitted he was drunk and he got $5 and costs. Al Dempsey drew the same amount. Both had applied last night for lodging at police headquarters and each made port with a bun.

SLAY THIRTEEN PRISONERS.

Mexican Convicts Make Break for Liberty at Chihuahua.

City of Mexico, March 1.—Dispatches from Chihuahua, delayed in transmission, received here today confirm the killing of thirteen out of forty-two prisoners, who attempted to escape from the penitentiary last Sunday. The aid of the turnkey was enlisted and the guard overpowered. The fleeing prisoners were fired upon by the guards on the walls. A squad of soldiers attracted by the firing, pursued the fugitives to the yards of the Mexican Northwestern railroad, where they were surrounded.

Few of the jail breakers were armed, but they made what resistance they could. Besides the thirteen killed, five were injured and captured. The others escaped. The turnkey was found disguised in women's clothes. He was shot by the authorities for his treachery.

The soldiers, mistaking a body of volunteers for insurgents in the heat of the fray, fired into them, killing their leader. Several others in the crowd that gathered were injured by stray bullets.

The Pythian Sisters' Social circle will meet with Mrs. Phil Lotz, 1435 West Third street, Friday afternoon instead of Thursday afternoon as previously arranged. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Emma Kemp and Mrs. Charles Lotz.

ing than that of Representative Berry, of Wabash county.

Representative Berry is labeled in the house directory as an "educator." After taking vigorous exception to the clause in the liability measure which exempts from its provisions employees in shops or factories employing fewer than five men, the representative from Wabash conferred a new dignity on the farming community by consigning it to the hazardous occupation class.

"Farming is a hazardous occupation," thundered Representative Berry, "and should come under the provisions of this act."

Representative Veach, who when he is not attending the legislature is riding in a buggy over uncertain roads and splinting compound fractures, remarked:

"That is why I quit farming. The strenuous ways and the monotonous days of Agriculture got on my nerves, so I took to medicine. Berry is right."

Senator Netterville, Anderson, who has been seriously ill the past week will be unable to be in his seat during the remainder of the session.

Representative Wells, of Scott and Jennings counties; Representative Merriman, of Wells county; Representative White, of Vermilion county, and Representative Brown, of White county, all jumped up in one session, do not tend to the speaker's placidity of mind. The members know this, and seldom take exception if the speaker refers to "the gentleman of Wells" while looking at the gentleman from Scott and Jennings, or to "the gentleman of White" while looking at the "gentleman from Vermilion."

Nor is the speaker alone in the innocent process of color-mixing. The members in the heat of debate more often than not go wrong, then use their fingers to point out the particular hue.

As for Wells and Merriman, they shake a friendly fist at one another when the common noun and the proper noun cross each other, and the members smile.

Speaker Veneman has studied the rules assiduously and has a high conception of parliamentary dignity, to say nothing of decorum. A good many members a great many times forget all about the rules and think less of decorum.

Twice yesterday did the speaker break up a general talkfest by vigorously proclaiming that "this is not a ward political convention."

As the session nears the end, the belt on the parliamentary wheel slips more and more, the suave and dignified and almost halting solon of the early days feels himself more at home, and more at liberty to do as he pleases.

SUN

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR

Should Never Be Removed With Poisonous, Pasty Compounds Because They Are Dangerous and Increase the Growth.

The preparations above referred to are invariably in the form of creamy pastes. These are easily recognized by their pale grayish-green color. They are to be spread upon the skin to remain until they are dry. These contain Sulphide of Barium, an insoluble chemical, which cannot be dissolved, therefore cannot be absorbed by the skin. The very fact that you are told to leave these "pasty" compounds on the skin until they dry and then lift off with a knife is proof positive that they are not absorbed. If they are why do they still remain on the skin? The most they can possibly do is to remove the surface hair, which in consequence will reappear stronger and thicker after each removal.

There is only one logical and scientific way to remove hair and that is by means of a liquid containing soluble ingredients which can be absorbed by the skin. De Miracle, known all the world over as the only real superfluous hair remover, is just such a preparation. It is easily and quickly absorbed and after you have used it you will note there is nothing left on the skin. It leaves the skin free from irritation, and what is more to the point, it is absolutely non-poisonous, therefore it will not produce eczema or blood poisoning. Remember no matter what claims are made to the contrary, no poisonous, pasty compound or so-called "liquid cure" ever did or ever will destroy a single hair root, and we can prove it.

The extravagant claims recently made by unscrupulous manufacturers of hair removers in sensational advertisements unquestionably justify physicians in cautioning the public against the use of this class of depilatories. How many people have been enticed into using these dangerous preparations with consequent injury to themselves cannot be estimated, but only guessed at, therefore beware of false free advertisements and others who by word of their advertisements, try to give the impression that newspapers and other reputable publications endorse their worthless preparations. Don't be deceived by them. De Miracle is the only preparation which is so endorsed. De Miracle is sold at all good stores, including Wolf & Desauers.

No honest dealer will offer you a substitute on which he makes more profit.

We will send you a 52-page booklet containing full information concerning this remarkable treatment, as well as testimonials of prominent physicians, surgeons, dermatologists, medical journals and the principal magazines and newspapers. You should read this booklet before you try anything. Write to De Miracle Chemical Co., Dept. E 8, 1905 Park Ave., New York, simply saying you want this booklet, and it will be mailed, sealed, at once.

Note—All readers of this paper who are afflicted with superfluous hair growths are strongly advised to write for information concerning this wonderful method, which is endorsed the world over by eminent authorities, who have made a lifelong study of this subject.

The Adventures of Mr. Peter Ruff

BY E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

The Perfidy of Miss Brown

"I recognized him at once," she interrupted. "It is the Marquis de Sogrange."

Peter Ruff nodded.

"It will be best for you," he said, "not to notice him. Of course, his presence here may be accidental. He has a perfect right to enter any society he chooses. At the same time, I am uneasy."

She understood in a moment.

"The Cienarvon diamonds!" she whispered.

He nodded.

"It is just the sort of affair which would appeal to the 'Double-Four,'" he said. "They are worth anything up to a quarter of a million, and it is an enterprise which could scarcely be attempted except by some one in a peculiar position. Violet, if I were not sure that he had seen me, I should leave the house this minute."

"Why?" she asked, wondering.

"Don't you understand," Peter Ruff continued, softly, "that I myself am still what they call a corresponding member of the 'Double-Four', and they have a right to appeal to me for help in this country, as I have a right to appeal to them for help or information in France? We have both made use of one another, to some extent. No doubt, if the Marquis has any scheme in his mind, he would look upon me as a valuable ally."

She turned slowly pale.

"Peter," she said, "you wouldn't dream—wouldn't dare to be so foolish?"

He shook his head firmly.

"My dear girl," he said, "we talked that all out long ago. A few years since, I felt that I had been treated badly, that I was an alien, and that the hand of the law was against me. I talked wildly then, perhaps. When I put up my sign and sat down for clients, I meant to cheat the law, if I could. Things have changed, Violet. I want nothing of that sort. I have kept my hands clean and I mean to do so. Way, years ago," he continued, "when I was feeling at my wildest, these very jewels were within my grasp one foggy night, and I never touched them."

"What would happen if you refused to help?"

"I do not know," Peter Ruff answered. "The conditions are a little severe. But, after all, there are no hard and fast rules. It rests with the Marquis himself to shrug his shoulders and appreciate my position. Perhaps he may not even exchange a word with me. Here is Lord Sothorpe coming to talk to you, and Captain Hamilton is waiting for me to tell him an address. Remember, don't recognize Sogrange."

Dinner that night was an unusually cheerful meal. Peter Ruff, who was an excellent raconteur, told many stories. The Marquis de Sogrange was perhaps the best successful in his efforts to entertain his neighbors. Violet found him upon her left hand, and although he showed not the slightest signs of having ever seen her before, they were very soon excellent friends. After dinner, Sogrange and Peter Ruff drifted together on their way to the billiard-room. Sogrange, however, continued to talk courteously of trifles until, having decided to watch the first game, they found themselves alone on the leather divan surrounding the room.

"This is an unexpected pleasure, my friend," Sogrange said, watching the ash of his cigar. "Professional?"

Peter Ruff shook his head.

"Not in the least," he answered. "I have had the good fortune to render Lady Mary and her brother, at different times, services which they are pleased to value highly. We are here as ordinary guests—my wife and I."

The Marquis sighed.

"Ah, that wife of yours, Ruff!" he said. "She is charming, I admit, and you are a lucky man; but it was a price—a very great price to pay."

"You, perhaps, are ambitious, Marquis," Peter Ruff answered. "I have not done so badly. A little contents me."

Sogrange looked at him as though he were some strange creature.

"I see!" he murmured. "I see! With you, of course, the commercial side comes uppermost. Mr. Ruff, what do you suppose the income from my estate amounts to?"

Peter Ruff shook his head. He did not even know that the Marquis was possessed of estates!

"Somewhere about seven millions of francs," Sogrange declared. "There are few men in Paris more extravagant than I, and I think that we Frenchmen know what extravagance means. But I cannot spend my income. Do you think that it is for the sake of gain that I have come across the Channel to add the Cienarvon diamonds to our coffers?"

Peter Ruff sat very still.

"You mean that?" he said.

"Of course!" Sogrange answered. "Didn't you realize it directly you saw me? What is there, do you think, in a dull English house-party to attract a man like myself? Don't you understand that it is the gambler's instinct—the restless desire to be playing pitch-and-toss with fate, with honor, with life and death, if you will—that brings such as myself into the ranks of the 'Double-Four'? It is the weariness which kills, Peter Ruff. One must needs keep it from one's bones."

"Marquis," Peter Ruff answered, "I do not profess to understand you. I am not weary of life, in fact I love it. I am looking forward to the years when I have enough money—and it seems as though that time is not far off—when I can buy a little place in the country, and hunt a little and shoot a little, and live a simple out-of-door life. You see, Marquis, we are as far removed as the poles."

"Obviously!" Sogrange answered.

In a few brief words I will try and tell you that I have secured for this week Mr. John Ennor, the man of the "outer world," and must say that he is the best and most entertaining attraction that I have ever had. All those that were fortunate enough to hear Mr. Ennor last night will bear me out in this statement. The audience sat in their seats spell-bound and as they left the house a smile of satisfaction was on their faces. Mr. Ennor will hold your attention in such a pleasing way that you will say you could sit all night and listen to him. So come tonight, as he has something new for you and something new every night. Tonight his subject will be The Age of Civilization or the "Flash-light of Human Progress." Beautifully illustrated. Tomorrow the land of the "Midnight Sun."

Alive

The remark most often made regarding the German-American Bank is that it is a very much alive institution.

The officers and employees are without exception always looking for and seeking some new way to serve the bank's customers.

If there is something they can do in this direction that they are not doing, they would be glad to have you tell them.

The savings department in this National bank has become one of the features of the institution. It pays 4 per cent. interest on small sums and throws around your savings all the safeguards of the National Banking system.

CLASSY BOWLING IN BIG TOURNAMENT

Haas Leads But Partner Can Now Smell Right or Left-Handed, Just as He Feels Like.

FAERNAN ROLLS WELL SIZES UP THE CLUBS

Some classy bowling was done in the big two-men tournament at the Metropolitan Bowling alley last night in which Haas and Faernan, with nearly 1200 pins to their credit, took first money, with Ben Ungemach and Ed Harckenrider second.

The best individual performance was that of Tony Haas, but he missed getting in the money because his partner fell down on him. The partner was Harry Dreibels, usually one of the most consistent performers, but he got away bad. But for the fact that Haas rolled a better ball than the winners would have rolled, he would have been the winner.

His performance by shooting 234, which was the best single score of the evening. The figures follow in the order in which the teams finished:

WHEELER GETS A BAD NOSE FIXED

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 1.—(Det.)—That nothing shall prevent his scattering all the good players in this part of the country who are not already signed Manager Eddie Wheeler of the Terre Haute team of the Central league has been a bone of contention on his nose. The bone was broken some ten or twelve years ago by a hard hit grounder, which he was prepared to pluck from the ball with a pebble. He changed its flight. Result, a badly mangled nose for an ambitious young player, for Eddie Wheeler was then just coming into prominence as member of the Worcester team down in Massachusetts.

For years Eddie has been doing all his smiling and breathing as well from the port side. Now he breathes with equal ease through both nostrils. Last year he was somewhat handicapped through a cold which he caught while on tour to scout the most desirable players. He is content enough, however, to win the pennant and sell in good numbers to the Worcester team down in Massachusetts.

But for the two operations the clever manager would now be sojourning in Terre Haute. He wants to get on the field in a day or two and will go so if the surgeon who carved him will consent. He wants to be in Terre Haute well in advance of the small army of players whom he has ordered to report. Thirty-four men are expected to report for the season sold outright to the Holland team of the Michigan State league. It means that Holland will not have a full team this year.

When asked regarding the other teams of the league, Wheeler expressed himself as follows: "Fort Wayne has a team which will make them a couple of years. Casey is a capable manager, a good ball player himself and a good judge of playing ability. The South Bend team should be a strong contender. Speed Kelly is a strengthening addition to the champions' lineup."

"Anus Grant has a good team down in Evansville, one which will make a strong fight in every game. Dayton does not look quite so good as last year, but they will have a chance to win."

Wheeler said that he was not sure of the outcome of the season, but he was confident that his team would be a strong contender.

Glimpses at the Sport World

Some young reporter who has a lot of time at his disposal has figured out that it will cost the National league $25,000 for railroad fare the coming season and $200,000 for hotel bills.

Lajoie, of the Naps, made more errors than any of his teammates last season, but at that Manager McGuire would not part with him for all the other men on the team put together.

President C. W. Murphy, of the Cubs, is not feeling very well this week. The ailments he has been having with him of late have been the result of his manipulation of the heart that has caused his friends much worry.

"Nuff said" McGreevey, the famous Boston pitcher, was doing with the Red Sox when they left for the coast. He will furnish the Pacific coast fans with a sample of his big league routing when he comes to Chicago recently.

Battling Johnny Schultz, Toledo boxer, will in all probability be matched with Tommy Barry, the fight to take place at Milwaukee in the near future. Jack White, of Chicago, recently trimmed Gary at that city, the fight being timed in the seventh round.

Walter Nagle, the pitcher, Pittsburgh secured from Los Angeles last fall, has been signed to a contract at a much higher figure than he expected. Dreyfuss believes in having his youngsters tested at the start so that he can get their best efforts.

Jim Delahanty, of the Tigers, has been a member of eleven professional teams since he broke into the game in 1894. He has played with the Red Sox, White Sox, Chicago, New York, Boston and Cincinnati teams in the National league and with the Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis clubs in the American league.

It is reported that Clark Griffith, of the Reds, is not as much stuck on George McQuillan as he once was. With the Brooklyn boy had been offered to Pittsburgh for Canitz and to Boston for Matern. Dreyfuss would like to see McQuillan in a suit, but there is a chance of the McQuillan-Matern trade going through.

Harley Parker played his first league engagement in Grand Rapids at that time. He was a boy in his teens at that time. Johnny Evers says the confidence gained by National league pitchers while he was in a summer league was as well as he did. Evers says that before Wagner was in a summer league they could stop him.

Jimmy McQuillan says he would have been glad to give Jimmy Callahan a chance to play with the Senators the coming season. "Cal has not been out of the game and will come back all right, I believe," said the Washington manager, "but Comiskey had the first call on him and it was no more than right that he should return to the Chicago club."

Pitcher Jesse Tannehill, who was unconditionally released by the Minneapolis team, is still in the game. He will leave for Hot Springs with Clarke Griffith's Cincinnati team. Tannehill is still in the game and should be able to last for a while in a class A league. Griffith also thinks that the former major league pitcher can still get a good work and will give him a thorough try-out.

Several American league managers were not hot on Comiskey's trail. The opinion that he has a few good years left in him yet and should be able to last for a while in a class A league. Griffith also thinks that the former major league pitcher can still get a good work and will give him a thorough try-out.

GIRL DOES SIX-MINUTE "TURN" IN FIVE-CENT SHOWS FOR SUFFRAGE.
Miss Florence King Starts on "Nickelodeon Circuit" in the "Votes for Women" Fight—Gets Act Over Footlights and Evades the "Hook"—Tries Her Performance "on the Dog" and It Makes Hit With the Audience.

FLORENCE M. KING

New York, March 1.—Among the score or more of enthusiastic young women in New York city who are employed on an eight hours a day basis to argue for "votes for women" none has devised a more ingenious method to catch the attention of mere man than Miss Florence King, who has invaded the five-cent moving picture shows to promote the campaign for women suffrage. According to the vocabulary of the "nickelodeon circuit," Miss King does a six-minute "turn" and tries to make a quick getaway to save the managers of the various halls the necessity of bringing into action the much feared "hook" for the vaudeville artists who fall to get their act over the footlights. When the enterprising Miss King, the first advocate of woman's suffrage in the city with the temerity to preach her serious doctrine in places wholly given over to amusement, finds that she has a spare evening on her hands, with no "five cent audience" to entertain, she endeavors to harmonize the seeming incongruity of her work by giving a talk in some church. One of these dates will be filled tomorrow evening in the Eighteenth Street Methodist Episcopal church. The Fifth Assembly district, which extends from Fourth to Nineteenth street, and from Sixth to Eleventh avenue, is looked after by Miss King for the woman suffrage party, which has headquarters on the twenty-first floor of the Metropolitan tower, at No. 1 Madison avenue. Her inspiration to bring light into dark places, according to the belief of the suffragists, came to Miss King while she was climbing up dark tenement stairs in her daily house to house canvass in an effort to spur mothers to take a more active part in the battle for "votes for women."

Gets Her Idea

"It occurred to me then," said Miss King in an interview, "that there must be some way in which I could reach the more humble classes and tell them my story without so much loss of energy. Not that I mind climbing up long flights of dark stairs, because that's rather good exercise for an energetic suffragist, but I wanted to bunch my shots, as it were. They positively wouldn't come to a hall and sit for an hour or more and listen to cut and dried speeches on woman suffrage. No matter how eloquent we tried to make our argument, I found that the people of the Fifth Assembly district didn't seem to get much entertainment from the meetings. All of them go to a picture show at least once a week, and I quickly resolved to track them to their lair. "It was then that my real troubles began. Nobody but the members of the theatrical profession know just how hard it is to get one's act billed at one of these five cent theaters. I talked harder to convince the managers that my show would draw than it seems to me I ever talked for the cause before. Offers "Life Net."

"Finally, Mr. Bertini, manager of the Bleeker street theater, decided to let me try it on the dog, as they say in the show business. I want to give full credit here for the skillful manner in which Mr. Bertini introduced me to his audience. If an act fails to please persons attending a five cent show they have various ways of showing that displeasure in a manner that will leave no doubt in the performer's mind. Among these ways are the fifty-seven varieties of decayed fruit and vegetables. Mr. Bertini gently hinted that the life saving net used to catch such missiles was at my disposal, but I made up my mind that I would take a chance in making my debut. "I was duly warned by the manager that I must get through and off the

COUNCIL AGREES HOLD ORDINANCE

Weights and Measures to Be Considered at the Next Meeting.

CONTRACTS GO OVER

In the absence of E. A. Wagner, of the committee on rules, regulations and ordinances, to which the weights and measures law was referred, members of the city council agreed before they went into session last night to carry the matter over until the next meeting and no report of any kind was submitted. There was nothing doing with the Tripper contracts for the separation of grades at Fairfield avenue and at Broadway for the reason that the committee on contracts and franchises reported that it had not had an opportunity to fully investigate the documents in its hands and that it wanted two weeks more. The committee did not cite any particular objection to the terms of the contracts, but said both were lengthy and that they demanded more time to read than had been afforded. Chief of Police Abbott asked for the appointment of a clerk and the board of public safety referred the matter to the council. He said he needs a man to receive callers, do the clerical work and relieve the force of the necessity of keeping men at headquarters who ought to be out on the streets on patrol duty. This matter went to a special committee composed of Bauer, Klinder, Hamilton, Fininger and Haller. An ordinance appropriating $150 to the payment of the Mary Murphy claim was passed upon a suspension of the rules. Acting upon a communication from the city attorney a committee consisting of Bauer, Welch, Braun, Fininger and Wagner was selected to revise the city ordinances. A resolution was introduced by Mr. Bauer to reduce the bond of the county treasurer for the handling of city funds to $250,000. He cited that the bond of half a million under the old law was all right, but with the depository law in force it is unnecessary, as the $250,000 will cover more than the amount in the treasury at any time. This went to the finance committee. An ordinance was passed extending the fire limits and the full text and boundaries will be included in the report.

LOST LIFE IN TIPTON YARDS

Jay S. Vervalin Caught Between Cars and Instantly Killed.

FORMERLY NICKEL PLATE YARDMASTER

Remains Brought Here to Be Interred by the O. R. C.

Relatives in this city were shocked Tuesday evening by a telegram announcing a fatal accident to Jay S. Vervalin at Tipton, Ind. The message came from the corner and stated that Mr. Vervalin was caught and crushed between cars while engaged as a switchman in the yards of the Lake Erie and Western company. The remains will arrive here over the Lake Erie and Western and taken to the home of the family, from whence the funeral will be held at a time to be announced later.

Mr. Vervalin's age was 46 years, 3 months and 14 days. He was born in Parma, Mich., and was a resident of Fort Wayne for some years, his wife dying in this city March 2, 1910. Mr. Vervalin is survived by three children—Miss Margaret Vervalin, treasurer of the Lyric theater; Solomon T. Vervalin, who has a position with the Corvair and Archer company; and Master George Vervalin. Other relatives include the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Vervalin, a brother, at Jackson, Mich., and a sister, Miss Catherine Vervalin, at Parma, Mich. The deceased was a member of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Royal Arcanum. The O. R. C. will have charge of the funeral and will meet this evening to make the arrangements.

Mr. Vervalin was engaged in railway work almost constantly from the time he was big enough to work up to the time of his death. He began work on the Nickel Plate in 1894 and for several years was a brakeman with Conductor C. W. Ziegler in the local freight service. Then he was promoted to a conductorship and worked in that capacity until March, 1907, when he was appointed general yardmaster at this point. Eighteen months ago, soon after the death of Mrs. Vervalin, he resigned his position at the yards and went to Richmond, Colorado, where he was employed at railroad work until a month ago. He took employment with the Lake Erie and Western three weeks ago.

SKIN DISEASES

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

Nature has made ample provision in the moisture and sunshine of the air for the outward protection and healthy condition of the skin. But the more important work of nourishing the cuticle has been left to an inward source—the blood. It is from the circulation that the pores and glands receive their stimulus, and the fibrous tissues are all preserved in a healthful state because of constant nutriment supplied by the blood. It is only when the circulation becomes infected with humors or acids that we are troubled with skin affections. The humors producing these troubles are carried through the circulation direct to the skin, and their irritating or inflammatory effect remains until the blood is cleansed. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases, because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation and REMOVES the acids and humors which are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, pimples, rashes, and all eruptions of the skin. When S. S. S. has driven out the humors every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with cooling, healthful blood, natural evaporation is renewed, and the skin becomes soft and smooth. Engineer Henry Stuter, of Kansas City, is visiting his relatives in Fort Wayne and was a caller at the Nickel Plate round house yesterday. Engineer Stuter was employed on the Nickel Plate before he left the city—about ten years ago. He is now running on the Missouri Pacific, between Kansas City and Council Grove. He will return home the latter part of the week.

Conductor W. H. Grout, of the G. R. & L., who has been severely ill several days, is improving and is now able to walk about the house.

A Mallet compound type of engine pulled eight-five loaded cars over the Middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad one day last week, a feat that no other engine was ever able to accomplish. The cars in that train were all steel and of 100,000 pounds capacity.

Country Produce Remains Firm in Market With No Material Change.

VERY QUIET MARKET

It seems that the bottom on prices, at least for the present, has been reached in regard to country produce and it is probable the local prices will not go any lower this week. This is particularly true in regard to butter and eggs. The market remains firm. There is a good demand for both. The street market was very dull today. But few farmers were on Barr street, and the few were confined to the single square space between Main and Columbus. Aside from grain and dressed pork, the latter in limited quantities, there was little offered for sale. Tomorrow is the regular market day and, with nice weather, it promises to be a pretty good-sized one on Barr street. Maple molasses is coming into the city in large quantities, at prices ranging from 10c to 15c. There will be a big crop of maple sugar this year. It is expected that the price on it and molasses will soon go lower. Wheat receipts are light. Considerable corn and oats are coming in. The prices show no change from those of the last several days. Wheat is 95c, corn, 40c, 44c, and oats, 25c. With the commencement of Lent the fish markets are increasing in activity. Prices have advanced in activity. The retail price on white fish today was 12c a pound, pickerel 12c, and on what some call "grass pickerel," 7c.

STATE CAMPAIGN IS MAPPED OUT

Anti-Saloon League to Work for Return of County Option Law.

PLANS KEPT SECRET

"The repeal of the county option law is resulting exactly as predicted by the Anti-Saloon League leaders, who predicted that the repeal of the law would mean the return of saloons in the cities, and even went so far as to name the cities in which they would be returned, and every city named has gone as predicted," said Rev. N. C. Shirey, district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, in an interview with The Sentinel this morning.

"I don't believe that what has occurred means that the people are losing confidence in the county local option law, as the cities that went wet were practically wet before, as blind tigers flourished unmolested in the majority of them. I think that what has occurred will simply show the people the enemy we have to face, and the need of a stronger organization. Just as the battle of Bull Run served to call forth the courage of the north to a new concentration in the warfare, so what has occurred in Indiana has but served to call forth the latest forces of good citizenship."

"It is the judgment of the Anti-Saloon League leaders that it will be necessary to get the county option law back again before state wide prohibition can be thought of, and the league is consequently working up to that end, and has mapped out a campaign in an endeavor to attain it. What this campaign is I am not at liberty to divulge."

Mr. Shirey also stated that a canvass had been made recently in Perry township to hold an election at Huntington, and that over twice the number of names needed to the petition had been secured before half of the township was canvassed. The petition will be filed next Monday and the election will in all probability be held March 25.
